17 _____/
18 In 2015 and 2016, plaintiff Global Equity Management (SA) Pty. Ltd. (GEMSA), 19 represented by Attorney William Ramey, brought the three above-captioned patent infringement 20 actions in the Eastern District of Texas against various defendants. These actions transferred to 21 our district in April 2017. Attorney John Thomas appeared for GEMSA shortly thereafter.

22 Attorneys Ramey and Thomas then filed motions to withdraw as counsel from all three 23 actions. All defendants opposed on the bases that (1) GEMSA, as a corporation, cannot appear 24 in these actions without counsel, and (2) Attorney Ramey allegedly pursued these actions in an 25 abusive manner and should not be permitted to escape the possible imposition of sanctions at 26 the end of litigation by withdrawing now.

27 Both issues have since been defused. In their reply briefs, Attorneys Ramey and 28 Thomas agreed that their withdrawal, if permitted, would not terminate the Court's authority to award any appropriate sanctions against either of them. Additionally, Attorneys William Thomson, Jr., and David Randall have appeared as new counsel for GEMSA in all three actions.

1 Accordingly, Attorneys Ramey and Thomas's motions to withdraw as counsel from all 2 three actions are GRANTED, save and except that the Court will retain jurisdiction over them to 3 entertain any motions for sanctions or further relief at the end of said actions.
